

You Play, Schools Win! Empowering Future Careers Video Transcript

Opening shot: [A person wearing a safety mask is shown welding. The California Lottery Logo appears on the screen.]

Voiceover says: “The California Lottery is training the next generation of Californians to achieve to achieve their dreams.”

[Video cuts to students welding in a workshop and students carpentering in a wood shop.]

[California Lottery Logo appears with text that reads “Supporting California Public Schools Since 1985”]

Voiceover says: “When you play, we fund essential workforce training programs in our public schools. From hands-on technical training to career coaching and job readiness programs. The California Lottery is preparing students to excel in whatever field they choose.”

[Video cuts to students participating in various career training programs including culinary, automotive, firefighting, and engineering classes.]

[California Lottery Logo appears with text that reads “$46 Billion Raised for Education”]

Voiceover says: “With over $46 Billion of funding for public education in California since 1985.”

[Video cuts to students smiling in engineering, electrical, automotive, and culinary training programs.]

[California Lottery Logo appears on the screen with the text “You Play, Schools Win.”]